

CREATIVE PROCESS CYCLE 2 WEEK CHALLENGE

Use this planning sheet to design an artwork to make in 2 weeks that will somehow show your theme. Be ready to talk about your artwork and explain... follow the creative process cycle to guide you through. Good luck & have fun!

NAME _____

CLASS _____

Which theme have you chosen (please circle):

- Being under pressure
- It's ok to be different
- connections
- my personal history (my identity)
- what I wish people knew about me
- my hope for the future is...
- what I wish people knew about me
- I want a world without...
- what I want adults to know about being a 5th/4th grader.

Are you working...???

1. alone
2. with a partner

partners name

if with a partner you can work on one sheet

FINDING INSPIRATION

part 1: why did you choose your theme? please explain...

part 2: what is it about this theme that you would like to show through your art...

part 3: have some ideas already? write them here:

part 4: now, where will you find inspiration for imagery? (circle which ones you think you'll use)

- Around the artroom?
- ms anna's art books?
- internet searches
- real-life observations and drawings
- take photos

part 5: now collect inspiration - document anything and everything in your sketchbook!

extra notes:

DEVELOPING & PLANNING IDEAS

use this space to draw your ideas for what your artwork could look like (use your sketchbook if you need more space) always ask yourself how this is showing your chosen theme.

are you ready? show ms trinn or ms anna this sheet and we will sign your creating triangle so you can get started...

CREATING